13.30 – 14.30 Assessing productive skills at B1 and B2 levels

Communicating through speaking and writing are probably the most important and challenging aspects of English for our students and additionally the most daunting skills for us as teachers to assess. In this session we will analyse what makes a student a good written and oral communicator. We will also discuss what we need to look for when giving our students a grade and what challenges and issues we face when assessing our students. In addition, we will look at the best ways to give students feedback and help them to improve their productive skills.

Matthew Siegal, Cambridge English Language Assessment presenter

14.30 – 15.30 Перерва

15.30 – 16.30 Are you ready for projects? - Prepare!

The seminar is for the secondary school teachers who are interested in how to implement project work in their regular classes. The participants are going to look at how to structure a project lesson. The seminar will also provide the teachers with lots of project ideas.
